

OSW

CENTRE FOR EASTERN STUDIES

OŚRODEK STUDIÓW WSCHODNICH im. Marka Karpia

Warsaw, 6 November 2015

To whom it may concern

I hereby declare that Mr. Yuriy Matsiyevsky, PhD at the Ostroh Academy National University (Ukraine), was a Think Visegrad 2015 Visiting Fellow at the Centre For Eastern Studies (OSW) in Warsaw.

In the period of 5 October – 6 November 2015 he worked on a project entitled: „How can Ukraine break out of hybridity and start moving forward?”.

The final result of his Think Visegrad 2015 Fellowship was a very interesting, well-written working paper and an original, highly competitive presentation for the OSW experts. Mr. Yuriy Matsiyevsky presentation showed that he has deep knowledge about political system of Ukraine as well as strong analytical skills and an excellent understanding of the problems he deals with.

Mr. Yuriy Matsiyevsky contributed to the OSW as a host institution. In the proces of discussions with Polish colleagues he also increased his knowledge about Polish-Ukrainian relations and other research skills.

It was a real pleasure to work with Mr. Yuriy Matsiyevsky.

Wojciech Konończuk

Head of the Department of Belarus, Ukraine and Moldova
Centre for Eastern Studies (OSW)
Warsaw, Poland

KIEROWNIK ZESPOŁU
Ukrainy, Białorusi i Moldawii

Wojciech Konończuk